

SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE GUIDELINES

The Oman Aluminium Processing Industries SPC (OAPIL) has established official accounts on social media platforms as part of its strategy to introduce the company's activities, products and services to the local and international community, and to open a door for direct communication and interaction with stakeholders and community members. Social Media accounts are the other mirror to any organization; thus, compliance with interaction policy & list of publication prohibitions mentioned below is a guarantee of work methodology in this aspect. Oman Aluminium Processing Industries SPC (OAPIL) reserves its sole right to review, reply and delete any comments that fall within the scope of the Publication Prohibitions, whenever it deems appropriate. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

Publication Prohibitions:

- Comments that contains underestimated to religious or sectarian beliefs.
- Comments involving libel, defamation or discrimination.
- Comments and posts that support or abet illegal activities.
- Comments and posts that contravene any legal rights or intellectual property rights.
- Comments that include false and unreliable information.
- Comments intended to offend or harm another user or participant.
- Comments include personal attacks or defamatory statements or comments against public figures and/or officials.
- Making unauthorized statements on behalf of OAPIL on public platforms.
- Comments or links to sites that contain viruses or malicious software
- Any other comment considered inappropriate by OAPIL.